

Expressing a Doubt / Hesitating

Key Structures

Expressing a doubt-

I doubt we can finish on time
I very much doubt it
I question their decision
Maybe I shouldn't have
I have reservations about the new plan

Hesitating:

I'm in two minds about it
I still want to think about it
I just can't make up my mind.
I'm at a loss
I don't know what to do
I'm still not sure if I should answer
Well, you see, umm, errr, you know
How shall I put it

And now a dialogue between Jeff and Ashley

A Difficult Choice

Jeff: I'm really in two minds about it. I'm at a loss. What should I do? I think I should choose this one. Or maybe that one. Well, in fact I'm not too sure, I can't decide. It's a difficult choice.

Ashley: So, do you want the window seat or the aisle seat? It's a 45-minute flight, we haven't got all day.

I Doubt It

Jeff: I doubt if I could do this job properly. I'm not sure if I'm cut out to be a waiter, somehow, I doubt it.

Ashley: I have no you'll be perfect for it. Trust me, you're undoubtedly the best person for the job.

Jeff: Well I had reservations on how to act with pretentious customers.

Ashley: Oh, come off it, of course you'll manage.

Jeff: I still want to think about it.

Ashley: Ok, but make up your mind before it's too late.
