

Advising / Suggesting

Key Structures

Advising:

Can I give you a piece of advice?
My advice is to go by train.
You should call the police.
You'd better leave now.
If I were you, I'd give up.

Suggesting:

We could go to the cinema tonight if you'd like?
How about / What about going to the cinema?
Shall we go out for dinner?

And now a dialogue

Why Don't We Go to New York?

Man: Why don't we go to New York this summer?

Woman: Good idea. We could visit the cloisters while we're there.

Man: Let's check out how much it would cost.

Woman: What about asking John and Laurie if we could stay with them?

Man: Sure. I suggest you call them immediately.

Woman: Hello. It's the middle of the night there.

If I Were You

Man: And here's my new kitchen. I installed it myself.

Woman: Well if I were you, I'd change the color. I don't like green.

Man 2: Also, you should buy a big oven and I wouldn't put the coffee machine on the work top.

Woman: Yes, I agree. And why don't you knock this wall down? Your kitchen wouldn't look so tiny.

Man: And you call yourself my friends? Just a word of advice don't mention the word kitchen again tonight.