

HYPNOLANGUAGE
Learn english faster & easier

1X LEVEL 01 IMPERATIVE

WAIT, PLEASE!

Sarah: Wentworth. It's hot in the classroom. Can I open the window?
Wentworth: Please do. It is true that it is very hot today. All those by the windows, open them, please! Like Sarah, open them!
Sarah: It's open. They are all open now.
Wentworth: Good! Now, let's start the lesson!
Sarah: Wait!
Wentworth: Wait, please.
Sarah: Excuse-me. Wait, please. It is a bit windy.
Wentworth: Lift the binds completely. Lift them to a maximum. Make sure they do not get damaged.
Sarah: I am pulling the binds carefully.
Wentworth: This I will check, after the lesson. Be careful when you lower them too!
Sarah: Yes. No one wants to be scolded by Miss Frampton.
Wentworth: Keep it in mind! Remember, if there is any deterioration, you will hear from her! So be careful! Don't damage the binds. And let's start the lesson, shall we!

WAIT, PLEASE!	To lower
It is hot	too
can	To want
To open	To want to (be)
A window	To scold
please	scolded
true	by
today	To keep in mind
all	'keep it in mind'
those	To remember
by	'Remember!'
Like + noun	if
now	any
Good !	deterioration
To start	To hear
'Let's start!' (imperative form including I)	'To hear from (X)'
Excuse-me	So
To wait	Let's..., shall we?
A bit	The question tag 'shall we' here asks for confirmation
'it is windy'
lift
The binds carefully
'To the maximum'
To make sure
' make sure '
Get + past participle
To get damaged
To pull this To check after
'Be careful!'

HYPNOLANGUE
Learn english faster & easier

Grammar: IMPERATIVE

In English, we use the IMPERATIVE when :

a) we give an order:

Example: Be quiet!

b) we give instructions:

Example: Press the button and the door will open.

c) we ask for something

Example: Give me the book, please

d) we attract people's attention:

Example: Look! There's a rainbow