ADJECTIVES

WHAT IS HE LIKE?

- Wentworth: Hello everyone. We don't have time to waste today. I hope you learn the list of words that I give you every week. Because this week, we use the vocabulary to describe people physically... So... Here is a picture of a famous singer. Sarah, you start!
- Sarah: So, this singer is a woman. She is old.
- Wentworth: How old is she? She is not 'old'... She is in her thirties'.
- Sarah: I'm sorry, Sir.
- Wentworth: Call me Wentworth, please... Continue!
- Sarah: So, she is in her 30's, she is tall and slim. She has long curly blond hair. She has blue eyes. She is very pretty.
- Wentworth: Correct! She is a pretty woman. Next one.
- Sarah: I know. I know who that is.
- Wentworth: Make a description of this artist.
- Sarah: He is a young actor. He is short and fat. In the picture, he has brown hair and green eyes. He has a tan.
- Wentworth: This is a perfect description, almost. He is not fat, he is 'overweight'. Overweight. But now, what is he like? Is he the same?
- Sarah: Now, he's not the same, he's different. He is fit. He has fair hair. But I think he is a redhead, naturally. His real eyes are not green. They are hazel.
- Wentworth: You are a real fan! Very good!
- Sarah: He plays in a lot of movies. He is handsome. And, he has a beautiful smile.
- Wentworth: Fine. In the next picture, there are several celebrities. Again, please describe!

Grammar: ADJECTIVES

In English, adjectives never change (= it is the same for singular and plural forms).

Remember, feminine or masculine forms do not exist (!).

a) We use them in their bare(=dictionary) form:

Example: I am nice/ He is nice/ It is nice/ She is nice/ They are nice.

Example: She is pretty / He is handsome/ It is beautiful/ We are gorgeous.

b) We put the adjective before the noun if we make a description without 'BE':

Example: I have a tall friend= My friend is tall.

c) If there are different adjectives, we use the order below:

We put the size and/or the shape or colour before the noun.

Ex: It is a small round cake

She has big blue eyes
