WHY NOT/LET'S/HOW ABOUT

LET'S GO TO THE RESTAURANT

- Wentworth: Let's go to the restaurant to celebrate your graduation!
- Sarah: That would be great! We could also celebrate Sam's exhibition... No, wait, he's on holiday in Toronto at the moment
- Wentworth: What do you fancy? Mexican, Japanese... How about Greek?
- Sarah: Why not try Lebanese?
- Wentworth: Lebanese? I'm not sure... What sort of food do they have? What is it like?
- Sarah: Similar to Greek food. It is spicy, sometimes hot and spicy when you eat chili pepper. Usually, they serve meat like chicken or meatballs with beef.
- Wentworth: I'm sorry I can't eat meat, I'm a vegetarian. I need to pay attention to food. I'm also allergic to nuts and milk...
- Sarah: Well, they also have vegetarian dishes. Raw or cooked vegetables with bread and a lot of spices.
- Wentworth: That sounds interesting!
- Sarah: It is delicious. I promise you won't regret it.
- Wentworth: Then, let's try!
- Sarah: Perfect. I'll show you this real Lebanese restaurant. There is no junk food there, it is 100% organic.
- Wentworth: Okay, let's go!
- Sarah: Let's go!
