

LEVEL 1

MY HOBBIES

- Wentworth: Sarah, in your free time, what do you do?
- Sarah: In my free time, when I don't work, I'm at home watching television.
- Wentworth: I mean, as a hobby. Do you have an activity in your spare time?
- Sarah: In my spare time, I play basketball in a club. I love basketball. My team wears green and pink jerseys. They look fabulous. My teammates are the best!
- Wentworth: Do you have another hobby or sport you practice? What do you like?
- Sarah: I like going to the cinema. I often go. I like hiking, especially in the countryside, there are beautiful forests. I hate hiking in the mountains, it is cold and dangerous. What do I like? What else do I enjoy? Cooking, I really enjoy cooking for my friends and family. But I don't take any classes... And I like gardening too!
- Wentworth: Gardening? Interesting!
- Sarah: What are your hobbies?
- Wentworth: My hobbies? In my free time, I like running. I sometimes take part in local races. I also enjoy taking pictures outdoors... I love museums too, so I enjoy visiting one with my children every month.
- Sarah: What else do you enjoy?
- Wentworth: I really love surfing. I have always lived by the sea so surfing, scuba-diving are my favourite activities. Here, I just go to the gym... Haha
- Sarah: Going to the gym is nice. You can practice sports all year round, no matter the weather!
- Wentworth: I agree. It is enjoyable, and convenient! Haha

Grammar:

In English, when you want to speak about your preferences, you use a verb of preference and a verb of activity in – ING ending:

Nb: If the verb of activity is a short verb that ends in 1vowel+1consonant, you double the final consonant:

Example: travel – travelling

Shop - shopping

a) POSITIVE:

LIKE + vING      Example: I like playing the piano.

ENJOY + vING      Example: I enjoy reading literature. (the verb ENJOY means 'to appreciate')

LOVE + vING      Example: They love scuba-diving. (here, the verb LOVE means 'to adore')

b) NEGATIVE:

i-When you do not appreciate an activity, you use:

DO/DOES NOT LIKE/ENJOY + vING

Or

DISLIKE + vING

Example: They do not like cooking= They dislike cooking.

She doesn't enjoy reading= She dislikes reading.

ii-When you detest an activity, you use:

HATE + vING

Example: I hate shopping

He hates dancing
