Fashion

Sarah: Hello Wentworth! I was wondering if you would come.

W: hey Sarah, I'm sorry, I was stuck in the traffic jam, it looks like everybody wanted to see the fashion show today, how long have you been queueing for?

Sarah: I arrived an hour ago, and I'm not surprised to see such a queue for a Christian Lacroix fashion show.

W: I confess it is a first for me so I didn't know what to expect. What are the tendencies for this season?

Sarah: actually two seasons are presented today, so the main fabrics used for the fall/winter collection are tartan, wool, velvet and denim for clothes and fur, suede and leather for jackets and coats.

W: ok, so will we see a sample of each?

Sarah: No, generally the fabrics are mixed in a same garment in High fashion. For example, you may see a dress made with silk, satin and lace; another one might blend linen, cotton and tweed.

W: I see... but honestly, who could wear such luxurious garments?

Sarah: well most of the time you can find these worn by cinema stars during famous festivals like Cannes Film Festival, etc. It's a perfect showcase for the luxury brands to use a star to represent their image.

W: It's impressive! I wonder how these poor models manage to walk with such high-heeled shoes!

Sarah: This season, die-hard fashionistas and models are in danger of doing serious damage to their ankles, all in the name of fashion!

W: Oh poor things! Hopefully it only happens episodically.
