

Books / Museums

A paperback
a book seller
a library
the cover
a novel
a comic strip
a preview
a masterpiece
committed
common place
to depict

a hardback
a second-hand book
an author
the table of contents
a short story
poetry
an exhibit
a picture
gifted
ugly
to stand for

a bookshop/a bookstore
seller
a title
fiction
a detective novel
an exhibition
a work of art
a painting
skillful
fake
to criticize

And now a dialogue

- Woman: The main character is a middle-aged woman.
- Man: I wish I could read more, but you know, I'm tied up with my work.
- Woman: Why do cookery books sell so well?
- Man: The exhibition featured more than a hundred works of art.
- Woman: She finds it difficult to understand abstract art.
- Man: There's an exhibition of paintings by ____ in London.